

RESCAB is committed to safeguarding the health, safety and welfare of its employees as well as the people and property affected by its operations. To reduce risk of accident or injury, the company seeks to provide a work environment that, as far as is reasonably practicable, is safe and preserves the health and welfare of those that work within it and those that are affected by its activities.

The company is committed to continuously improve its standard of health and safety throughout its operations. To this end the board provides leadership in health and safety matters by engaging and training the workforce in the achievement of safe and healthy working conditions and promoting best practice as far as is practicable. The board is committed to providing adequate resources to train, monitor and assess the company's health and safety performance and deliver the objectives set for continuous improvement.

The requirements of this policy are communicated to all employees through the company's heads of department and the management of health and safety is promoted through consultation and involvement. The health and safety policy is displayed at all company sites and offices and issued to all new staff joining the company at induction.

It is the duty of managers to prevent injury and ill health as far as is practicable and it is the duty of each employee to exercise personal responsibility for their own health, safety and welfare as well as that of other people. Compliance with legal requirements should be adhered to at all times and no breaches should be tolerated.

This policy will be reviewed periodically and amended as necessary to ensure that it remains relevant to the activities of the company and complies with current legislation and best practice.
